Cleveland Custom House.

This building, which is to be one of the finest west of New York, is rapidly approaching completion. Two years ago last Thursday the corner stone was laid, and in two months more it will be ready for occupancy. A brief description of the ready for occupancy. A brief description of the work will probably be interesting to our readers-The lot which is 105 feet on Superior and Rockwell streets, and 200 on the Square, was purchased of Leonard Case for $30,000. The building is 60 feet on Superior street by 110 front on the Square It is built of Independence stone, with iron columns beams, girders and stairways. In the rear of this is the main room 80 feet by 41, halls 12 feet wide being at each end. Here are ten delivery windows, 485 drawers, and 4,024 boxes. These oxes are enclosed with highly ornamented iron arches which form the partition between the two the use of the Clerks. The ceiling on the first floor is 17 1-2 feet high. The second floor ir used principally for Custom House business and the Collector's room, which is 20 by 45 feet and 18 1-2 high fronts upon the Square. On the south side is the Collector's private room, and on the north, that of the United States Judge. Back of these is a second for the party do not express it.
